Provisional Admission:

*Candidates who have not submitted their final year mark sheet must do so by June 30, 2024. Their admission is provisional and currently on hold until they deposit the final mark sheet.

#Candidates who have not submitted their minority government certificate, will have their results withheld until they produce the same to CET TEAM/Admission Centre.

Important Note

1. The seats are allotted as follows keeping in view the choices of centre filled by the candidates and the place secured by them in the overall merit. If candidates do not get their first choice, they will be placed on the waiting list for that centre as per the number fixed. If their second choice is confirmed, they will be granted admission to that choice. If the second choice is also not confirmed, they will be placed on the waiting list for the second choice as per the number fixed and granted admission to their third choice and so on.
2. As per the allotment policy, candidates must take admission within 7 days by completing the formalities mentioned in the admission letter and submitting the required documents. If the admission is not taken as above, they will lose the right to their confirmed admission but will retain the right to admission as per the wait list, subject to clearance of their waiting status, if any. It is clarified that by taking admission to a centre of second or third choice, the candidate will be continued to be on the waitlist, if any, for the centre of earlier choice. Upon creation of a vacancy, a waitlist candidate eligible to be offered admission for that centre will be offered admission for that centre. This exercise will be done till a notified date to be decided later.
3. An orientation program for selected aspirants from all the centres is scheduled for July 14, 2024, at Delhi. Attendance is mandatory along with parents/guardians to the orientation programme. Those, who will get admission to Delhi centre shall be admitted to the centre on the same day subject to completion of necessary formalities. Details regarding the same will be provided in the admission letter.
4. The admission letter, along with Rules & Regulations, will be emailed to you. Please follow the instructions in the email to complete your admission process.
5. This result or subsequent admission is no guarantee to the continuance of admission in the center. It will be subject to the fulfilment of terms and conditions of the admission and maintenance of strict discipline at all times. JATF management reserves the right to cancel admission at any time on breach of the terms and conditions and any incidence of indiscipline.
